EVERY DOG HAS HIS DAY

LADY DOG MEMBERS WERE ALL TURNED DOWN

EMPHATIC VERDICT AGAINST THE LAST LEGISLATURE SENDS FOURTEEN MEMBERS BACK TO PRIVATE LIFE.

"OLLY" BILL WHITE, J. P. MAKAINAI, S. H. HAAHEO, J. P. HIHIO, H. M. KANIHO, R. H. MAKEKAU, J. A. AKINA, R. PUUKI, I. KAHILINA, WILLIAM MOSSMAN JR., W. B. NAILIMA, G. P. KAUMIKAOLE, JOHN K. KEKAULA, I. KAHILINA.

The above is a list of fourteen members of the last legislature who were re-elected at the polls in the election last Tuesday. They are all members of the Home Rule element. All were up for re-election and all went down to defeat on their Lady-Dog record. On the other hand, with two exceptions, every Republican who was up for re-election was supported by the voters.

Excepting Fred W. Beckley of Maui and J. K. Paete of Oahu not a Home Rule member of the last House or Senate who was up for re-election was sustained at the polls. The list of defeated ones includes two senators and twelve members of the House.

There were over twenty members of the last legislature up for re-election and the voters seem to have been laying for them. "Oly" Bill White went down to defeat on Maui, with Curlois Makekau, Speaker Akina of the house, the man who had his district in his pocket, lost it somehow since the last election, and he will not be in the House again. J. P. Makainai, S. H. Haaheo, the Rev. Hihio, Kaauiwa, Nailima, Kaimakaole, Kekaula, Kahilina, Puuki, were all defeated and the Hon. H. M. Kaniho, the longest wined Roman of them all, is voted to stay at home.

On the Republican side Representative Dickey is made a Senator and Representative S. W. Wilcox the same. Senator Achi is re-elected and so are Representatives Kumalae and Aylett.

As far as the voting is a judgment upon the last legislature, it is regarded as a clear verdict of approval of the Republicans, and a straight turning down of the Home Rule crowd. Except for the five Senators who hold over, Beckley and Paete are the only non-Republican members of the last legislature who will take seats again.

OTTO ISENBERG ILL.

By the American Maru last evening, D. P. R. Isenberg received word that Otto Isenberg, formerly manager of Kekaha Plantation, is critically ill at the Occidental Hotel in San Francisco.

After 83 Years

With the close of this year the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions will withdraw all financial aid from the religious work of these Islands. The evangelization of Hawaii was begun by missionaries of the American Board 83 years ago. This work was continued until the fifties, when the missionaries of the Board were withdrawn and that work turned over to the Hawaiian Board. Certain financial aid continued to be extended. This will now be withdrawn.

MEMORIAL STONE FOR ETTA FRIEL

TO BE ERECTED BY THE LITTLE CHILDREN OF HONOLULU—A POPULAR SUBSCRIPTION.

EDITOR STAR:—Out from the shadow of that terrible calamity (the fire on Nuuanu street) last Thursday night, shines a bright spot of humanity such as is not often seen and which should be duly appreciated by the public. I refer to the devotion of the child Etta to her mother; with her foot outside of the window-sill, and in easy reach of safety, she deliberately turned around, calling to her sister: "No! I will stay with mother!" Beneath the ruins of the burned house were found the charred remains of mother and child lying close together and covered by a mattress. Would it not be but right and comforting for the public to acknowledge this child's devotion to her mother in some suitable manner? I am sure there are very many children who would like to contribute their little subscription towards erecting a stone for the grave of the little heroine.

DR. GEORGE HERBERT.

The foregoing letter appeared in last Monday's issue of the Star. It attracted widespread attention and the very thoughtful suggestion made by Dr. Herbert will be made a reality with the aid of the children of Honolulu.

The Star has been requested to act as treasurer of the memorial fund and all subscriptions will be acknowledged through these columns from day to day until a sufficient amount is realized to provide a suitable memorial stone for the grave of the little heroine.

The idea is to make the subscription a popular one and a large sum from individual subscribers is not desired. A small sum from each child is preferred. A child with five cents will be just as welcome as the highest subscriber.

The work is started today with the following subscribers:

- Alice Hastings.....$0.50
- Kotie E. Herbert.....50
- Wilhelmina Tenney.....50
- Vernon E. Tenney.....50
- Charles M. Herbert.....50
- Elizabeth Freney.....50
- Annie V. Lappe.....50
- Mary Mamunul.....50
- Augustin Guerrero.....50
- Dorothy Hoogs.....50
- Margery Hoogs.....50
- Hazel Berndt.....50
- Edith Lightfoot.....50

REPAIRED THE CABLE.

Captain Piltz arrived this morning with the steamer Waialeale from Kilauea Kaula where he has been engaged in repairing the lost cable at the plantation. He picked up the cable and made it fast to the overhead wire. The wire could not be used however owing to some repairs being necessary to the hoisting machinery. The work done by Captain Piltz was very successful as the cable had been lost many months.

TO BEAUTIFY KAPIOLANI PARK

W. G. IRWIN'S VIEW ON WHAT IS NEEDED—AN EXPERT AND PLENTY OF WATER ESSENTIALS

The impetus given the improvement of Kapiolani Park by W. G. Irwin's subscription of $1000 has been followed with four more promises of $250 each and the plans show signs of speedy achievement.

"There is much that can be done for the improvement of the park," said W. G. Irwin this morning. "I have lived there now for twenty-two years and I know the difficulties that lie in the way. Not everything will grow there and a great deal of what does grow could be replanted to much better advantage. It is really all white sand out there, but experiments with my own place have shown that many trees can grow there which will beautify the place. Banyans for instance will grow well. The ironwoods, which by the way are not as generally supposed a Northern pine, but grow on the atolls of the Pacific, are very effective when planted in clumps or as an avenue. The way they are scattered now has a very gloomy cemetery like effect.

"The main thing is to get a good supply of water through the government. We could dig a well and have a constant flow running through the lagoons while lilies and water hyacinths could bloom and the water kept from being stagnant as at present. We need a practical head though. If this expert comes to us from Scotland and our plans go through we shall be able to know what can be done to the place after a talk with him. He is not a gardener as it is understood, in the ordinary sense of the word, but an artist, botanist, forester and the high standard of education that makes the expert landscape gardener.

"As I understand it, the park under his care will show groups of trees planted with regard to vistas seen from winding avenues. There will be no set walks or flower beds. Nature will be assisted, not perverted. Pretty glimpses of the sea or mountains will be framed in tree trunks and foliage. Natural formations will be used to their best advantage. There will be no attempt to paint the lily, but every opportunity will be given the lily to grow to the best of its capacity. The little islands now existent in the lagoons should be capable of much beauty if properly cared for.

"The lodge, that has been mentioned should I am inclined to think, be built in the Swiss chalet style. I think an excellent place for it would be opposite Cuba's residence where a pond was filled in some time back, being the right of the road the carriage take when driving to the bank concerts. Being the residence of the head expert he will naturally make it the show place of the park, and it will make a delightful entrance. Water, a practical head and money to keep up the improvements should make a beautiful park of the ground. I don't want to interfere with the Jockey Club but the race track ground would naturally be absorbed into the park in course of time."

A Tariff Courtesy Withdrawn

Japan will have to pay duty when she sends supplies to her island colonies. The majority of the received an order from the Treasury Department today notifying him of this fact. It appears that article 476 of the Customs Regulations of 1899 permits the free entry of articles sent by a foreign government to its agent. The majority of the nations have accorded similar privileges to Uncle Sam. Secretary Shaw of the Treasury Department has learned, however that Japan, Russia, Roumania, Serbia, Bolivia, Chili, Denmark and Peru do not extend this courtesy. It has now been decided to withdraw this courtesy from those countries and they will have to pay duty in future on consular supplies sent to its officials.

JACKSON ARRAIGNED.

Nigel Jackson was arraigned before Judge Wilcox this morning to answer to a charge of murder in the first degree referred by E. B. Friel, the husband of one of the victims of the fire last week, which Jackson is accused of having caused. Jackson was represented by Lorrin Andrews, who asked that the examination begin at once. Deputy High Sheriff Chillingworth asked for a continuance until tomorrow in order that the matter might be presented to the grand jury.

Andrews opposed this motion. The court said that it was in favor of the grand jury system and would grant the continuance. There was some discussion which ended by the case being continued until tomorrow.

A VIOLENT ATTACK OF CROUP CURED.

"Last winter an infant child of mine had croup in a violent form," says Elder John W. Rogers, a Christian Evangelist, of Pillsbury, Mo., U. S. A. "I gave her a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and in a short time all danger was past and the child recovered." "This remedy not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the first symptoms appear, will prevent the attack. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by all druggists, Benson Smith & Co., general agents.

BIGGEST DAM ON ISLANDS

MAMMOTH RESERVOIR CONTEMPLATED AT WAIALUA AT A COST OF QUARTER OF MILLION.

A proposition is on foot in connection with the water supply of the Waialua plantation to build the biggest dam on the islands at a cost of a quarter of a million dollars. The big reservoir once formed will hold something like two billion and a half gallons of water.

When the Waialua and Wahiawa land owners were trying first to get the land from the government, at which time John Emmeluth was also a bidder, the two first mentioned bodies associated interests and the land was made over to them on the understanding that the water rights were vested in the Waialua plantation with the understanding that the Wahiawa colony were to have certain necessary supplies of water. The land lies in a broad plain running from Waialua on the coast back towards the converging slopes of the Waialua mountains and the main range of the islands. Wahiawa colony lies towards the head of this big valley and along it runs the road to Waialua from Honolulu while two streams water the land.

The contract with the Wahiawa people has been carried out and the colonial holdings at the last agricultural fair, Waialua plantation has used the natural waters but never the storm waters. They have pumped extensively natural water infiltrated through the soil and brought again to the surface is of infinitely more value to sugar planters than the same water percolated through the soil and brought out from an artesian well.

The plantation management then decided that a collection of the storm waters would enable them to obtain a supply of valuable water, would allow them to do away with the pumping and open up fresh lands for irrigation which with the present price of sugar they would not feel justified in opening up by pumping water to them.

It was determined also that it would be wiser for a separate corporation to undertake the building of the dam and for that purpose the meeting was called this morning. The directors were authorized to exchange water rights for shares in a corporation to be formed for the purpose of building the mammoth dam. The location is immediately above the bridge of the Waialua road over the Kaukonahua stream, close to the junction of the two streams which flow down the plain to the Waialua river and the sea. The cost will approximate $250,000 which will give a container capable of holding two and a half billion gallons of water. The engineering feat will be a noteworthy one. The value of the land to be watered thereby will be greatly enhanced and soon repay the cost of construction.

More Large Boats For The Pacific

CHICAGO, October 28.—The management of the Harriman lines is preparing to make a vigorous campaign for increased Oriental traffic through Portland. With this end in view orders will soon be given for the construction of four mammoth ocean-going steamers to ply between Portland and Asiatic ports. The cost of the steamers will be between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000 each, and their tonnage will probably be as large as those which are building for the Hill lines. For several years all of the coast line managements have realized that the battle of the future in the West will be for Oriental traffic. James J. Hill has taken the lead in preparing for this trade, and the others have been slow to follow. The awakening, however, has come.

TANBARA HAS CONFESSED

His Ship in Hock

CONSTANTINOPLE, October 27.—Abdul Hamid is anxious to return the visit paid him by Grand Duke Nicholas as the representative of the Czar. The Commander of the Faithful is desirous of sending his representative in a battle-ship with as much pomp as was displayed by Nicholas at Constantinople, but finds himself unable to do anything. His only available war ship is at present held in pawn by the shipbuilding company until the bill for repairs is paid.

BIG TRUST DEED JUST FILED

STAMP DUTY ALONE WAS $3,739. AND RECORDING FEE OVER $100. SECURITY FOR $1,250,000.

The Bank of Hawaii yesterday filed with Recorder Thurum a trust deed on which the stamp duty was $3,739 and the recording fees over a hundred dollars. It is the mortgage deed of the Pioneer Mill Company, in security for its new bond issue of a million and a quarter. The trust deed is a most voluminous document. By its terms the company does "grant, bargain, sell, hypothecate, pledge, release, remise, convey, alien, transfer, assign, mortgage and confirm," all its interest in about a hundred and twenty-five pieces of land held in fee by the company, over a hundred leases of land, numerous contracts and all the personal property of the company including its mill, railroads, etc.

The trust deed contains the usual provision as to the power of a majority of the bondholders to prevent foreclosure. This is the provision to which Judge Humphreys made objection in a decision regarding McIvrye and other bondholders in the Pioneer's big transaction in spite of the question raised in the circuit court.

The bonds are for twenty years, at six per cent interest. The money is by agreement to be devoted first to taking up the former issue of bonds, which has already been done.

WILCOX PLAYED A LOSING GAME

HIS VOTE OF 1906 ONLY SLIGHTLY EXCEEDED, WHILE KUHIO'S EXCEEDED DAVID'S AND PARKER'S.

A comparison of the election returns of this year with those of two years ago shows that Wilcox did not quite hold his own on Hawaii and Kauai, and polled a slightly larger vote in other places, while Prince Kuhio got a larger vote than Sam Parker and Prince David combined. It would seem that the Democratic vote went to the prince this time, and that the attempted fusion was a failure, or else that the ranks of the straight Home Rules have been greatly reduced. The following table shows figures of the two elections, the vote of Parker and David against the Home Rules being combined for the purpose of comparison:

HAWAII—FIRST AND SECOND DISTRICTS.
Parker and David, 1906.....	1145
Wilcox, 1908.....	1962
Kuhio, 1902.....	1793
Wilcox, 1902.....	1945
OAHU—FOURTH AND FIFTH DISTRICTS.
Parker and David, 1906.....	2013
Wilcox, 1908.....	1987
Kuhio, 1902.....	3354
Wilcox, 1902.....	2372
KAUAI—SIXTH DISTRICT.

TELLS MRS. JACOBSEN HE DID KILL HER HUSBAND

THE CONDEMNED MURDERER SAYS THE COOK ENCOURAGED HIM—DID NOT THINK HIS BLOW A FATAL ONE.

Before she left for San Francisco on the Alameda yesterday Mrs. Jacobsen, widow of the murdered captain of the schooner Fred J. Wood, heard from Tanbara's own lips his confession that he murdered her husband. Since his conviction and sentence, Tanbara has admitted that he struck the blow that caused the captain's instant death. The cook, Oto, told him to do it, says the murderer. This fits the theory of United States Attorney Breckons and others who have investigated the case. Tanbara's acknowledgment of guilt was made in the prison, and Mrs. Jacobsen was given opportunity to hear him. It was the first time he had admitted the deed since just after the killing, when he admitted it by implication at least. Since then it has been all denials and on the witness stand at his trial he declared that he did not know how the captain had met his death.

According to Tanbara's statement he did not intend to kill Captain Jacobsen. During the scuffle in the gallery he struck Jacobsen in the groin, just as described by the French sailor More. "I didn't know that a blow in that part of the body would cause death," said Tanbara.

This is the explanation the condemned man made to the bereaved woman who came 2,100 miles to testify at his trial. He added to it a statement that Oto had put him up to do the job. It is thought that Oto did in fact encourage him, and furnished him with the knife for the deed. Oto is not reachable by the law, however, as the testimony of the condemned murderer is not to be received in court.

No appeal has been filed in Tanbara's case yet. The defense has ten days from the time of sentence within which to make a move.

CONVICTS ESCAPE

"Hickory" Williams Fred Woods and a third man all negroes and among the most desperate convicts in Oahu Jail escaped from the work gang at Makiki quarry at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, and are at large. Deputy High Sheriff Chillingworth and posse are after them. Woods wears a bal land chain.

MUST TRY CASES

Judge Robinson this afternoon announced that he proposed to force attorneys and litigants to be ready to try their cases, or to drop them altogether. Hereafter when a case is called," he said, "if the plaintiff is not ready the suit will be dismissed, and if the defendant is not ready a judgment will be entered against him as by default, except in cases where a proper showing of reason for postponement is made."

The attorneys in the cases set for this afternoon were not ready to proceed, and the court was forced to take an adjournment to tomorrow morning.
